

CSTM Education Day

September 20, 2019

Crown Isle Resort, Courtenay, BC

|  |  |
|--|--|
| 7:30 – 8:30  | Breakfast  |
| 8:30 – 8:45  | Introduction from CSTM Board PresidentAnn Wilson                                    |
| 8:45 – 9:30  | The Role of the Transfusion Nurse in Transfusion MedicineClare O'Reilly             |
| 9:30 – 10:15   | Health Canada Blood Regulations and how it applies to the work YOU doSusanna Darnel |
| 10:15 - 10:30  | Networking break & refreshments  |
| 10:30 – 11:15  | Transfusion Medicine education in Canada: Challenges and opportunitiesSophie Chargé |
| 11:15 – 12:00  | CSTM - what's in it for you?Julie Hendry  |
| 12:00 - 13:00  | Networking lunch   |
| 13:00 – 13:45  | Fibrinogen, Platelets and Plasma, Oh My!Sherry Walters                              |
| 13:45 – 14:30  | Recognizing and Managing Transfusion ReactionsDr. Gwen Clarke                       |
| 14:30 - 14:45  | Networking break & refreshments  |
| 14:45 – 15:30  | Trauma Update: From the Blood Bank to the Operating RoomDr. Jacqueline Trudeau      |
| 15:30 - 16:00  | Event wrap-up  |
| We thank you for attending this event and encourage you to complete the survey   |  |
| About CSTM The Canadian Society for Transfusion Medicine is a multidisciplinary society which promotes and supports best practice in Transfusion Medicine in Canada through education, communication and |  |